Special Lecture on “Rashtra Nirman Mein Santo Ka Yogdan”

The Faculty of Social Sciences and Languages at Desh Bhagat University proudly hosted a special lecture on "Rashtra Nirman Mein Santo Ka Yogdan" (The Contribution of Saints in Nation Building). The event, held on the auspicious occasion of the 14th Pdarohan Diwas (Ascension Day) of Yugparcheta Acharya Shri Mahashraman Ji, witnessed enlightening addresses by distinguished speakers, including Munni Shri Abhay Kumar Ji, Shri Yashpal Mittal (Renowned Industrialist), and Shri Suneel Khullar (Mahamantri, Punjab Terapanthi Sabha).

The special lecture aimed to shed light on the significant role that spiritual leaders and saints play in fostering societal development and nation-building. The esteemed speakers shared their profound insights and experiences, emphasizing the timeless wisdom and contributions of saints in shaping the moral and ethical fabric of society.

Munni Shri Abhay Kumar Ji, renowned for his spiritual teachings and humanitarian efforts, delivered a captivating discourse on the importance of spirituality in nation-building. He highlighted the principles of compassion, non-violence, and selfless service as essential values that saints embody and propagate for the betterment of society.

Shri Yashpal Mittal, a distinguished industrialist and philanthropist, shared his perspective on the practical application of spiritual principles in the business world. Drawing from his own experiences, he elucidated how the teachings of saints can inspire individuals to lead ethical and responsible lives, thereby contributing positively to the nation's progress.

Shri Suneel Khullar, Mahamantri of Punjab Terapanthi Sabha, addressed the gathering, highlighting the teachings and vision of Yugparcheta Acharya Shri Mahashraman Ji. He underscored the importance of unity, harmony, and social welfare in the process of nation-building, emphasizing the need for individuals and communities to come together for the greater good.

Dr. Devinder Kumar, Director Faculty of Social Sciences and Languages, expressed his gratitude for enlightening lecture, stating, "We are privileged to have hosted Munni Shri Abhay Kumar Ji, Shri Yashpal Mittal, and Shri Suneel Khullar, who enlightened us on the profound impact of saints in nation-building. Dr. Zora Singh, Honourable Chancellor in his address said that the valuable insights and experiences have provided our students and faculty members with a deeper understanding of the spiritual and ethical dimensions that contribute to a strong and prosperous society."

The special lecture on "Rashtra Nirman Mein Santo Ka Yogdan" successfully honored the 14th Pdarohan Diwas of Yugparcheta Acharya Shri Mahashraman Ji, inspiring attendees to recognize the significance of saints' contributions in the progress of the nation. Desh Bhagat University's Faculty of Social Sciences and Languages continues to organize such enlightening events, fostering holistic growth and societal well-being.
