PROFESSOR (DR) DEVINDER KUMAR

(Renowned Punjabi Playwright and Theatre Director & Director Faculty of Social Sciences and Languages)

The Faculty of Social Sciences and Languages, Desh Bhagat University seeks to maintain a commitment to the pursuit of excellence by assisting students to develop a capacity for independent thought, critical analysis, self-awareness and social awareness. The department of Social Sciences aims to foster multi-dimensional research to promote societal and educational developments at global levels. By keeping in view the Indian society in particular, it cultivates multi-disciplinary and inter-disciplinary collaboration by preserving a climate of intellectual freedom, fostering ethical and moral values, social attitudes and approaches that encourage towards community service and involvement. With the aim to be an excellent provider of education equipping future professionals with extensive specialist knowledge and a strong sense of ethics, it is also committed to be a renowned centre of research with clearly defined goals to address social issues with a strong focus on challenges faced by Indian society. The department of languages extends rigorous programs focusing on literature, grammar, semantics and lexis of present-day, history and evolution of languages, critical and cultural theory. Students work towards the ability to write well, communicate to large audiences, develop their personalities and present themselves effectively. The courses run under the department prepare students for a full blown academic career with a wide variety of career opportunities in both allied industries and research with the right linguistic and intellectual competence where students also investigate global contexts to endure national distinctiveness keeping the language in focus. The department provides ground breaking training, mentoring and material writing capacity for delivering and showcasing pertinent language skills at local and global levels.
